DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 22-42 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose nor reasonably render obvious a method or sensor device for determining particle emissions from exhaust gases wherein at least one charge measuring means is arranged to measure the electric charge on the particles wherein at least one charger is arranged to charge particles by varying the way of charging or the charging power with respect to time in such a manner that there are at least two charge states present, in combination with all other limitations of the independent claims, is not disclosed nor deemed obvious in view of the prior art of record. The closest prior art reference belongs to Shiraishi et al. (U.S. Patent Number 5,260,249; hereinafter referred to as Shiraishi) Shiraishi discloses a catalyst that is used for purifying automotive exhaust gas. While Shiraishi is concerned with the same field of endeavor, the Shiraishi reference fails to disclose the means to measure electric charge or the means of varying the charging or charging power as required by the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
